BOOK FAIR
15 & 16.09.2023

On September 15th Friday through Saturday 16th, our school organized a book fair.

Dr. A.K.Perumal, Tamil folklore researcher and literary historian and Mrs. Saritha Joe, story teller and motivational speaker was invited for the inauguration of the book fair. The program commenced with a prayer song by our school choir followed by lighting of the lamp and welcome address.

Our chief guest Dr. AK Perumal gave a beautiful explanation about the word 'Nanjil' to the students. Followed by Mrs. Saritha Joe inspired the students through stories and activities. Our correspondent Fr. Maria Vincent addressed the students. A short cultural program was organized in between the program. The fair was placed on our class rooms. So many stalls were there to display books. Books were arranged with rows of tables and shelves lined up neatly. The air was filled with the scent of freshly printed books, and the lighting was bright yet cozy. The atmosphere was buzzing with excitement as book lovers of all ages roamed around, browsing through the books. Education should make students competent enough to consider public issues and form their opinion on them judiciously. To actively and meaningfully participate in the democratic functioning of our civic and political institutions, citizens are required to have certain competencies. It is, therefore, necessary that a suitable programme is devised to train youth for their role as citizens in a democracy. On 16 th sep the second day of our fair students of various classes staged STUDENT PARLIAMENT. chief guest of the day mr. swaminathan , special correspondent , tamilnadwu Hindu News paper. Appreciated and gave an inspirational speech.the program came to an end with a vote of thanks.
