BOOK FAIR

Nanjil CBSE School organized a vibrant Book Fair on September 20 and 21, aimed at promoting reading culture among students, parents, and the local community. The event featured a wide array of books, engaging activities, and opportunities for learning and interaction. The Book Fair kicked off with an inspiring inauguration ceremony on the first day. Chief guest Mr. Mujeeb performed the lighting of the lamp, symbolizing the illumination that knowledge brings to our lives. This was followed by an address from Rev. Fr. Jeya Kumar, who emphasized the critical role that reading plays in the holistic development of students. Our correspondent addresses the students about the importance of reading. An engaging interactive session was led by Dr. Sivakumar, professor from NI arts and science College, along with Mr. Jawahar. Their discussion revolved around the impact of literature on personal growth and critical thinking. Students participated enthusiastically, asking questions and sharing their perspectives, which made the session lively and informative. The fair was placed on our classrooms. So many stalls were there to display books. Books were arranged with rows of tables and shelves lined up neatly. The air was filled with the scent of freshly printed books, and the lighting was bright yet cozy. The atmosphere was buzzing with excitement as book lovers of all ages roamed around, browsing through the books. On the second day, the fair featured Kavignar Aahira, the head of Veeramamunivar Pechalar Peravai, as the chief guest. He delivered an inspiring speech about the significance of cultural heritage and the arts, encouraging students to engage with poetry and storytelling. Following his address our financial administrator rev Fr. Geo addressed the gathering; the day was filled with vibrant cultural programs. Students showcased their talents through various performances, including music, dance, and drama, celebrating the rich tapestry of literature and art. These performances highlighted the creative spirit of the students and their passion for the arts. The two-day Book Fair was a tremendous success, drawing in students, parents, and community members. The presence of esteemed guests, along with engaging sessions and cultural activities, made the event a memorable experience for all.
